CALLING ATTENTION TO MATTER OF URGENT PUBLIC IMPORTANCE

Shortage of LPG and black-marketing of kerosene in the country - (Contd.)

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Now, the hon. Minister to make a brief statement.

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): Mr. Deputy Chairman, Sir, I have circulated a detailed statement. So, instead of attempting to read it, I will very briefly sum up the major issues, and, at the time of reply, I hope, I will have the opportunity of explaining anything that remains unsaid.

Basically, I think it needs to be understood that we obtain one-third of our domestic output of LPG from a private sector refiner and a quarter of our domestic demand is met from imports. So, it was the combination of the close down of that refinery, that is, FCC units, along with the problems that arose on the import front just at that time, that brought about the sudden crisis just on the eve of the festive season but we did take matters in hand and by a combination of import management and inventory management, we succeeded first in substantially solving the problem here in the National Capital Territory of Delhi before Dussehra, and, in much of the rest of the country before Diwali.

Basically, the physical shortages through the month of November were no more that one to one and a half per cent of our monthly average turnover. If, therefore, there was a problem beyond the dealer, then that had a great deal to do with the fact that LPG is getting diverted to
